Subject: National Conference on Food Security in Bangladesh: Interdisciplinary Approaches

Dear Sir,

The Interdisciplinary Centre for Food Security of Bangladesh Agricultural University (ICF - BAU) and the Bangladesh Agricultural Research Council (BARC) are going to jointly organize a National Conference on Food and Nutrition Security in Bangladesh: Interdisciplinary Approaches during 7- 8 October 2017 with a support from the Centre for Development Innovation (CDI) of Wageningen University & Research (WUR), the Netherlands. Representatives of national and international organizations involved in different aspects of food and nutrition security in Bangladesh are expected to participate in the conference. The conference flyer is attached for circulation among the relevant and interested persons of your organization.

We are expecting potential participants from your organization in this national conference during 7-8 October 2017 at BARC, Dhaka, Bangladesh.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Md. Shahidur Rahman Khan
