

GAZIPUR: A training programme of farmers on flower cultivation was held at Seminar Room of Horticulture Research Center of Bangladesh Agricultural Research Institute (BARI) arranged by Floriculture Division of Horticulture Research Center on Sunday. ■ NN photo

Farmers' training on flower cultivation held at BARI

Gazipur Correspondent

The Floriculture Division of the Horticulture Research Center of the Bangladesh Agricultural Research Institute (BARI) arranged a farmers training at the seminar room of the Horticulture Research Center on Sunday.

About 30 farmers, retailers from different districts participated at the training workshop.

BARI Director (Training & Communication) Zebun Nessa inaugurated the training workshop as Chief Guest. Chief Scientific Officer of Floriculture Division and Project Director Dr. Kabita Anju-Man-Ara presided over the function while Director (Research) Dr. Md. Abdul Wohab, Director (Support & Services) Dr. Babu Lal Nag were present as special guests.

Principal Scientific Officer of Floriculture Division Dr. Farjana Nasrin Khan gave the vote of thanks. Scientists, officers, among others, were also present on the occasion.

